

Academy of Financial Services

Call for Paper

Second Annual Meeting with the Financial Planning Association

AFS October 9-10, 2009

FPA October 10-13, 2009

Anaheim, CA

The Second Annual Meeting with the Financial Planning Association (FPA) will be held on October 9-10, 2009 at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel, Anaheim, CA.

Program Participation:

The annual meetings of the AFS and FPA are designed to bring together academicians and practitioners to discuss the most recent developments in the field of personal finance. The meetings provide a forum for the presentation of new research and the discussion of current issues in the field.

Research Topics:

- Research papers covering all aspects of personal financial planning and education are sought for inclusion in the program.
- Papers in the areas of comprehensive financial planning, estate planning, insurance and risk management, retirement planning, tax planning, employee benefits, and investments, as well as, are encouraged.
- Panel discussions and tutorials devoted to individual financial planning issues of current interest will also be included in the program.
- Papers already accepted for publication in a refereed journal should not be submitted.

The submission deadline for paper presentations as well as special sessions is March 1, 2009. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. Please submit your paper at AFS2009Submissions@rollins.edu or visit <http://www.academyfinancial.org> for information. The names and affiliations of the authors should appear only on the cover page. The authors will be notified of decisions in May 2009.

Additional Information:

Halil Kiyamaz, AFS VP- Program 2009
Crummer Graduate School of Business
Rollins College, 1000 Holt Avenue
Winter Park, FL 32789
E-mail: hkiymaz@rollins.edu
Phone: (407)-646-2267