Dean – Stetson School of Business Administration (2009 - 2012) – Accomplishments:

Fundraising – Raised over $400,000 for the School of Business during AY 2009-2010, approximately $3M during AY 2010-2011. Five new endowed scholarships ($25,000 minimum, two completed and three in progress)

Development - Close working relationship with our alumni, the Business Advisory Board, and the University Board of Trustees. My development responsibilities include advancing naming opportunities, endowed chairs, endowed scholarships, and grants.

Outreach – Developed relationship with the University Board of Trustees, School of Business Advisory Board, attend alumni and recruiting events, work with Central Florida community groups (Chamber of Commerce and Central Florida Financial Executives International, Estate Planning Council, and development visits with alumni and business prospects.

Strategic Planning – Directed the revision and implementation of a new strategic plan, mission, and vision for the School of Business Administration.

Curriculum – Led the design and implementation of a fully revised undergraduate curriculum.

Internationalization of the curriculum – tripled the number of undergraduate and graduate study abroads (Austria, China, Japan, Vietnam, Hong Kong, Dubai, South Africa, Malaysia, Cuba, New Zealand, Istanbul, Budapest, Australia, and Korea) and implemented a new international sophomore level course. Visited China and South Africa to develop academic partnerships with Chinese and South African universities (faculty exchanges, student exchanges, internships, and new student development). Visited three South African and four Chinese universities to develop partnership opportunities for the university.

Faculty Development – Reinstated faculty summer research grants, instituted faculty research workshop, and increased funding for faculty research support.

School of Business Advisory Board – Redeployed and re-energized SOBA Advisory Board. Board giving increased to 100% participation for the past two years.

AACSB Accreditation – Managed and reenergized the process for maintenance of AACSB accreditation, including assessment and assurance of learning (reaffirmation in April 2011). I am currently on the AACSB reaffirmation committee, with 2015-2016 as our self-study year. My participation on this committee involves ensuring that we respond to the new standards and address the new priority on impact.

Assessment – Structured and implemented a new process for assessment for the School of Business and each department, for both accreditation and feedback to faculty for continuous improvement.

Scholarship – Implemented process for monitoring and ensuring acceptable levels of scholarship for all faculty (2 publications and 3 “other” over 5-year period).

Budgeting – Successfully implemented first year of zero-based budgeting process for School of Business Administration along with the University. Developed and managed budget of $8 million to ensure growth and ongoing financial stability of the School of Business Administration.

Program Revision - Worked with Arts & Sciences to move the BA in Sport Management program to the School of Business as a BBA. Redesigned the Sport Management curriculum to align with the business programs requirement.

Outside Programs - Maintained profitability and quality in School of Business outside programs, including: MBA, Executive MBA, JD/MBA, online MBA/MS, online MAcc, Executive Passport Degree Completion program. Profitability in outside programs maintained at 40%-60%. As Executive MBA Director, I maintained 40% profitability in the program on $2M in revenue.

Hosted fourth Family Business Transitions Conference in conjunction with Family Business Magazine during November 2011. Expanded to San Francisco during November 2011 and the fourth conference in Orlando during April 2012. Also in conjunction with Family Business Magazine, webinars are being developed for a Spring 2013 start.

Staffing – Successfully hired five new tenure-track faculty (Accounting, Finance, Marketing Management/International Business). Appointed new Director of Graduate Programs, new Director of Undergraduate Programs, new Director of Degree Completion Program, new Director of online MBA Program, new Director of online MAcc Program, and new Associate Dean. Named four new endowed chairs.

Mentoring – Successfully implemented mentoring program for business undergraduates during 2010/2011 and program is being expanded during 2011/2012.

AACSB – Trained/Certified AACSB accreditation team member and accreditation mentor.

Was the “face of the School of Business Administration” during times of crisis: death of one of our cherished faculty during May 2010 and when Stetson study abroad was trapped in Tokyo Japan during the earthquake/tsunami during Spring 2011.

Dean – Stetson School of Business Administration (2009 - 2012) – Responsibilities:

- Provide academic leadership in creating a vision for the School of Business Administration, ensuring that curricula and degree programs, both undergraduate and graduate, are innovative and promote currency in the field;
- Provide leadership and direction to the School's academic, research, and service endeavors;
- Provide leadership in the pursuit of excellence in the academic programs, including enhancing student recruiting and placement of graduates;
- Fiscal responsibility for all of the School of Business Administration budgets;
- Establish and maintain high academic standards that lead to the School's sustained growth;
- Provide leadership including engaging the School of Business Administration in campus strategic planning;
- Manage all aspects of the School's five departments and graduate programs, including personnel and budget, and recommend to the Provost/VPAA methods for School advancement;
- Represent the School of Business Administration to professional organizations, to accrediting bodies, and to the University community;
- Expand and enhance the School's presence in the larger community via outreach and partnerships;
- Engage in fund raising in collaboration with Development;
- Encourage, support, and enhance School of Business Administration faculty professional development;
- Serve as part of the University's senior management team including serving on the Council of Deans.

International Travel for Study Abroad and meeting with International Universities

- Dubai,
- Hong Kong and Vietnam,
- South Africa, (Johannesburg and Cape Town),
- Istanbul and Budapest,
- Visited China and South Africa to develop academic partnerships international universities (Visited three South African and four Chinese universities to develop faculty exchanges, student exchanges, internships, and new student development)
